

Informative Research Timeline

This is a timeline of when you need to each STEP of your research project complete. If you are working with 100% effort and still need extra time, make sure to talk to me about it. We will have weekly conferences to work on improving informative writing skills, research questions, mechanics, and any other questions you may have at the time. This is a BIG project, but I know you will do GREAT! Remember that I am here to support you and help you grow as a writer! Also, remember my GOLDEN rule with WRITING... AFTER YOU WRITE BECOME A READER!

February 5-8th	*Brainstorm ideas for body paragraphs *Research notes from book sources (Thursday) *Research notes from webpath on the library website (Friday)
February 11th	Continue taking notes from book or internet sources
February 12th	Organize notes into body paragraphs (sub-topics)
February 13-15th	Organize notes into paragraph outline
February 20th	CATCH UP DAY!
February 21st-22nd	Thesis statement and introduction
February 26th-March 6th	ROUGH DRAFT, EDIT, Begin Typing
March 7th	CONCLUSION WRITING
March 8th	Finish TYPING
March 12th	CATCH UP DAY!
March 13-19th	Visual Aids
March 20th-21st	Practice presentations
March 22nd	HISTORY MUSEUM DAY!